THANK YOU FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE SPIRITUAL TETRALOGY NEWSLETTER!

In appreciation, I've created this guide to learn to calculate Soul Agreements between you and your favorite (or least favorite) people.

Soul agreements and contracts are made prior to birth, guiding our human journey through experiences, relationships, and karmic lessons crucial for personal and spiritual growth.

Understanding the different soul contract meanings can give us a new perspective when it comes to our life experiences and relationships.

Soul contracts evolve with us, blending destiny and free will, central to our spiritual evolution.

I hope you find this information helpful!

SOULS COME TOGETHER FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF SOUL AGREEMENTS & SOUL CONTRACTS

What Are Soul Agreements?

Soul Agreements are the reason or purpose you agreed to come together as humans on Earth. Agreements are written and agreed upon before we incarnate.

What Are Soul contracts?

Soul Contracts on the other hand, are the detailed lessons, plans and relationships you created together, in order to live out your specific agreement.

- Soul Agreements are the intention of your connection, and
- Soul Contracts are the details or nature of your relationships
 - Mother, Father, Spouse, Child, Sibling, etc.,
 - Children had together
 - Life experiences had together
 - Karmic debt to be balanced
 - Karmic lessons to be learned

For example, you may have a Soul Agreement with your significant other to come together in order to experience a life of freedom and adventure. But to better learn from that experience, you may have a Soul Contract to parent a child together that requires discipline and structure. The lesson would be unconditional love, patience or a balancing of past life karma with the child.

Whatever the circumstances, it's within those two dualities (the Agreement and the Contract) that your soul growth could potentially take place, depending on your free will.

LOGY

The most influential number in your Numerology chart is the Lifepath Number.

Numerology

Numerology reduces your date of birth to a single-digit number, 1-9.

These numbers are called Lifepath Numbers.

Your Numerology Life Path Number is similar to your Sun Sign in Astrology. It reveals your strengths, challenges, natural abilities and talents, how you express yourself and how you show up to the world. When you align with your Lifepath, you are guided toward the many different purposes meant to illuminate your human life experiences.

MASTER LIFE PATH NUMBER

There are 3 exceptions to the single digit Lifepath number, called Master Numbers. They are 11, 22 and 33.

Numerology

In numerology, Master Numbers indicate a more intensified version of their root numbers:

2, 4 & 6

Associated with healing (11), achievement (22), and service (33), Master Numbers represent a life focused on self-mastery and transformation.

If you have a Master Number Lifepath, think of it as getting your Masters or PhD in being human.

Master numbers indicate a life with more challenges than those found in a Lifepath 1-9, but also a greater capacity for major transformation and success.

ATOR

Lifepath Number Calculation

To calculate a Numerology Lifepath number, you need a full birthdate: Month, Day and Year.

Linear Method Example #1:

May 17, 1975 = $5+1+7+1+9+7+5 = 35$ ($3+5 = 8$) = Lifepath 8

Linear Method Example #2:

January 7, 1969 = $1+7+1+9+6+9 = 33$ (master numbers of 11, 22 or 33 do not get reduced, but instead contain the attributes of the single digit they would reduce to) = Lifepath 33/6

Now take a minute and calculate the lifepath numbers for yourself and one other person.

Soulmates come together for the fulfillment of their Soul Agreements and their Soul Contracts

Soul Agreement 1

Strengths: You'll feel empowered to take on the world together, yet also feel supported to embrace your individuality.

Challenge: You could feel lonely at times in this relationship. 1 is the number of individuality and independence. You may experience power struggles.

Soul Agreement 2

Strengths: You'll hold each other in your heart and mind at the highest levels.

Challenge: However, highly sensitive people experience emotions more deeply, and can also take on another's emotions as their own.

Soul Agreement 11/2:

Strengths: You'll have a powerful intuitive and spiritual connection and can do amazing work together.

Challenge: Your intense sensitivity requires total honesty and a deep commitment to communication.

*To me, this energy comes through as potent and pure as the mythical perfection of a Twin Flame connection.

Soul Agreement 3

Strengths: Your Soul Agreement will support a life filled with brilliant creativity, happy fun, and engaging social activities.

Challenge: You'll have a wonderful relationship once you feel safe enough to open your heart and soul to each other.

Soul Agreement 4

Strengths: It will take a sincere commitment to doing any inner work in order to feel more comfortable opening your hearts and connecting with each other.

Challenge: Over time, your communication may begin to focus primarily on day-to-day life, rather than your feelings, needs and emotions.

Date each other again!

Soul Agreement 22/4:

Strengths: Together, you understand you have something big to share with the world, and this partnership is the perfect union.

Challenge: Prone to work-a-holism, this Soul Agreement can have difficulties creating balance in order to nurture an intimate connection.

Soul Agreement 5

Strengths: A Soul Agreement 5 shares a passion for free-spirited living! At your best the two of you will lead a life of pleasure, fun, passion and adventure!

Challenge: A potential challenge with this Soul Agreement could show up as a lack of moderation.

At your worst, this agreement could succumb to self-indulgence and addiction.

Soul Agreement 6

Strengths: There's a strong possibility for deep lasting love in this partnership.

Challenge: Enmeshment is a big possibility, so spending time engaged in your own interests and self-expression is crucial.

Soul Agreement 33/6:

Strengths: Family-oriented, idealistic, responsible, artistically creative, supportive, devoted, loving and sensible. With a heightened level of self-expression, the 33/6 guides and heals others on a grand scale.

Challenge: This connection may be difficult to translate to everyday life. Practicality and the day-to-day mundane tasks of life aren't as interesting to the 33 Soul Agreement.

Soul Agreement 7

Strengths: You will help each other grow spiritually. You're both in your head a lot, so you'll need to open your hearts to each other, giving the connection time to expand and flourish.

Challenge: You'll intuitively feel each other's energy, which can wound this powerful connection.

Perfectionism can leave each other experiencing the feelings of “not good enough”.

Soul Agreement 8

Strengths: The passion of an 8 agreement is incredibly empowering & encouraging. Equally supportive of each other's work, you value financial security and stability.

Challenge: Power becomes a game you play with each other, regardless of whether it's for success or control.

Soul Agreement 9

Strengths: A Soul Agreement 9 will produce the biggest and most profound lessons of your life. This connection is about transformation, growth and self-awareness.

Challenge: This agreement will thrive when each remembers that even though their souls desire to be “givers”, they must also remember to stay open to receive.

SOUL CONTRACTS

The term soulmate is the most commonly used when referring to two people who are meant to be in a relationship. But soulmates are not always romantic partners, and you will have MANY in any given lifetime who appear throughout your human journey.

Soul contracts also help balance karmic debt that has been accumulated from previous lifetimes.

Soul Contracts Are Different For Everyone

What you learn will be uniquely designed to support the goals of your soul's personal blueprint. These goals are based on the lessons you've learned in the past and the lessons you have yet to learn. Knowing your soul contracts help make sense of life's challenges and recognize important relationships that provide a framework for personal growth and development.

Relationships are our greatest teachers and our biggest mirrors.

Every challenge you are presented with is a way to understand the deeper, spiritual implications to help us work toward healthier & more fulfilling connections.

Q: Why Don't We Remember Our Soul Contracts?

A: You are a soul in a human body, here for the soul's evolution. We don't remember our soul contracts so we are able to use free-will to make necessary choices.

Q: What if we don't (or don't want to) learn a lesson?

A: As long as the lesson is resisted, it will resurface over and over again with higher intensity. If you manage to let the lesson pass you in this lifetime, you'll have to take it up in the next. The only way out of it - is through it.

EXPLORING YOUR SOUL CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS & RELATIONSHIPS

Often we just want to know WHY this person is in our lives and what we are meant to learn from it.

Exploring your Soul Contracts can help bring about a deeper understanding around your most challenging relationships, as well as your most joyful!
